MEMO ENDORSED

Re: United States v. Michelle Martin
21-CR-700 -3 (DLC)

Dear Judge Cote:

I write regarding my client Michelle Martin.

By Order dated October 6, 2022, ECF document 30, you scheduled a court conference for October 19, 2022, to address my application to be relieved and for new CJA counsel to be assigned. I have already reached out to John Zach, Esq., the attorney who will be replacing me, to assure a smooth transition.

Michelle Martin, who has been on pretrial supervision since her arrest in this case, lives in upstate New York, in the Syracuse area. She is working full time.

My request here is that Ms. Martin be allowed to participate in the October 19, 2022 court conference by telephone to spare her the time and expense and loss of work involved with travelling to 500 Pearl Street in Manhattan for this conference.

I have discussed the change of counsel with Ms. Martin and she understands the nature of the October 19, 2022 proceeding in Court.

A.U.S.A. Kedar S. Bhatia for the government consents to this request.

Respectfully submitted,

AVROM ROBIN

Application DENIED.
